SIGNS OF THE TIMES

REPORTING
REPORTING

Foreword

"In the past we have had a light which flickered, in the present we have a light which flames, in the future there will be a light which shines over all land and sea."

— Winston Churchill

We are struggling in two worlds: the world that is dying and the world that is struggling to be born. We are suspended between these worlds. Hunger, Vietnam, the existence of God, the Great Society, LSD, and all the other crises which, like winds, are trying to extinguish our lights. These winds are testing our endurance. Will we be able to withstand the complexities of these problems? Or will we hide behind barriers and shut off our lights so that no one will see us and call for help?

We must confront, analyze, and deal with these problems, thus hypothetically solving the world's perplexities. We must examine the past to see the faults, we must think of what can be done today, and we must anticipate a better tomorrow.

SIGNS OF YESTERDAY . . .
represent the foundation on which we have built our lives.

SIGNS OF TOMORROW . . . challenge us and prompt us to go forward with spirit.

SIGNS OF TODAY . . . fill us with hope and enthusiasm.

Dedication

Tribute goes out to Mrs. Vera Wallace, an employee of the IJC cafeteria. Mrs. Wallace was born in Itawamba County in August of 1899. In 1953 she began her work at IJC. For ten years, Mrs. Wallace lived in the old Monroe Hall. She stands ready to assist and help anyone in need, and for this great attribute, we salute you, Mrs. Wallace.

In Memory of Mrs. Ruth Long Kilpatrick

Students were saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Ruth Long Kilpatrick, who died of a cerebral hemorrhage on Friday, May 3, 1968. Mrs. Kilpatrick, a teacher of high school Spanish and English, was stricken suddenly while at school on Tuesday. She was a favorite among the students with her warm smile and personality and for her ability to make her students laugh at their own mistakes.
